

Economic Stimulus Package Simplified

Thursday, April 2, 2020

► Our Community Based Collaborative Outreach Efforts and Initiatives

Several not-for-profit organizations including Family Life Outreach Center Church of Gurnee, Illinois WorkforceSkills™, thExpeditor™, and The Small Business Exchange, LLC have united to provide assistance in this type of educational form during these challenging and uncertain times. We are present to help you end the journey through the sifting, examining, and filtering through the Economic Stimulus Package.

We have experienced over the years that SIMPLIFYING IS THE KEY to continued concise understanding without information being lost in translation.

► Community Services Offering

No monetary funds or cost will be incurred for this educational effort or service in deploying or sharing of vital information surrounding the Economic Stimulus Package. Do not pay anyone for their services.

We will not (or never) ask of any personal information from you unless you have chosen to share in a secured and designated session over your preferred communication medium.

We, together, will forge ahead successfully with concise information leading into success for our families and businesses in this moment.

► Fraud and Vulnerabilities

Remember that fraud and other online or in-person vulnerabilities have increased a hundred-fold due to the release of the Economic Stimulus Package of 2 trillion dollars. Don't let greed overtake the will to assist and give to others as you share wholeheartedly.

Do not become a victim to online bullying or pressures to fill out forms or to provide personal information, such as your social security number or birth date and more. Although, many of the organization or business may seem reputable, but may not be legitimate. Thread carefully in this season with the release of any information.

If you are not sure about the information provided by any organization or business assisting you in providing the proper documents for assistance, please call or contact the U.S. Small Business Administration or your local SBA.

► Our Goals & Objectives

To assist in enormous mobilization efforts in providing individuals and businesses with on-demand information needed to expedite the proper information (or paperwork) for financial assistance.

To help individuals and businesses to navigate, comprehend, or interpret the Economic Stimulus Package through a simplified manner without delay. Also, assist in document and form preparation for submission.

To help individuals to businesses understand and walk-through the process to completing electronic and fillable PDF forms.
